DEDICATION

Michael Woods

Michael Woods always believed that getting his children involved in horses not only passed on his love of horses, but also taught them a sense of responsibility and provided them an activity that the whole family could do. He led his two daughters and two foster children in 4-H, and went on to lead a 4-H Horse Club and help countless other children with their 4-H projects. Michael was a firm believer in no child being left out and would often lend his own horses so that the 4-Her would have a horse to ride at the State Show.

Michael was an activist for the 4-H Horse program. He fought to have a 4-H Horse Show added to the Shelby County Fair, and was a consistent figure at all 4-H Horse events, meetings, and shows. Michael was always the first person at the State Show, with his family in tow, to help unload trucks, stuff packets, and set up the office.

Michael was a passionate 4-H leader. He not only attended every 4-H event with his members, but would frequently take his club to horse farms, vet clinics, and horse events around the state. Unless you knew him personally, you would have never guessed that Michael suffered from a debilitating illness. While serving with the 101st Airborne Division during the first Gulf War, Michael was exposed to Sarin Gas. This left him with mobility problems, headaches and an atypical form of Multiple Sclerosis. However, Michael never complained, never slowed down, and continued to live for his family. In May of 2011, Michael was diagnosed with Stage 4 Colon Cancer that had metastasized to his liver. Doctors' believed that this was also caused by his chemical exposure. However, Michael's first concern upon hearing the news of his condition was how his drill team would continue to the state competition.

Even though many adults volunteered to take over coaching the drill team, the youth decided to forego competition that year, out of respect for their coach. The team still attended the drill team competition with Michael to cheer on the other teams. It was at that event that Michael was awarded the 2011 Outstanding Volunteer of the Year Award. He accepted the award while undergoing chemo therapy.

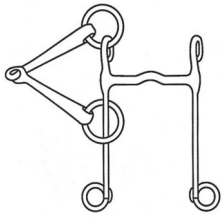

Sadly, after two rounds of chemo, two pulmonary embolisms, and several surgeries, Michael lost his battle with cancer on Veterans Day, one day after his 44th birthday. Michael continued to fight hard until the end, not for himself, but for his family who continues to entrench themselves in the 4-H horse program. His wife Jessica serves on the executive committee for the 4-H Horse Advisory Council, and daughter Danielle has served as a district representative. He is survived by Jessica, his wife of 18 years, two daughters Danielle and Megan (both 4-H members), and son Christopher who was always by his side, his loving mother, two sisters, one brother, several nieces and nephews, and a large 4-H family whose lives he touched. Michael's impact on the 4-H horse program will not be forgotten.

Jennifer Roth*Ohio
Dressage-Hunter Division*

Jennifer R. Roth is currently the dressage trainer at gypsy woods Farm where she has had the pleasure of working with Chuck and Joann Smith for the past 4 years training and riding their international quality horses. Jennifer is a native of Ohio, and an Otterbein University graduate. Jennifer has earned her USDF Bronze, Silver and Gold Medals and is a current FEI competitor and instructor. She has had numerous Regional Championship placings at Training through Grand Prix and top rankings at the USDF Horse of the Year at multiple levels. In 2012, Jen won the Grand Championship at Regionals in Lexington, Kentucky in the Grand Prix Freestyle. She is an "L" Graduate with Distinction since 2004 from the USDF Judges program.

Pepper ProfitOhio
Saddleseat/Miniature Division*

I've been training and showing horses my whole life. Along with my family we own and operate Proud Heritage Training Center in Johnstown, Ohio. I train and show Arabians in all divisions. We have taken multiple horses and amateurs to the winners circle on a national level.

I began my judging career about 10 years ago and have been fortunate enough to judge some of the Arabian industry's biggest shows, Saddleseat Shows, Miniature Shows, and many open shows.

Dale Barnett*Tennessee
Western Contest
Division*

Dale has been judging horse shows for 30 years and has judged well over 200 shows. He has judged the APHA World open and youth shows on multiple occasions, and National Championships shows in Australia and Canada as well. He has additionally judged the Houston, Denver and Fort Worth stock shows, the Paint Horse Congress, major NASMA mule shows, and various State 4-H Horse shows all across the U.S. He additionally has served previously on the APHA Show and Contest Committee and the APHA Judge's Committee. Dale attributes his judging success to the fact that he takes pride in being as fair, honest and as consistent as possible - giving all entries equal time and opportunity for consideration. "Without exhibitors we do not have a future horse show industry and the wonderful youth programs that go along with it, and I want to do my part to enhance and preserve that", says Dale. "I love judging the youth exhibitors, and I love to see them enjoy what they are doing." Like any good horseman he appreciates and respects any good horse and exhibitor in any event that does that event well. Interestingly, Dale was the KY State 4-H Horse Show manager in 1984 when he was a graduate student in the equine program at the Univ. of KY and knows this arena well.

Dana AlburyFlorida
Hunter Division*

Dana Albury has her USEF "r" license for hunter and hunt seat equitation. Her judging includes 4-H, USEF, Arabians, Intercollegiate Horse Show Association, Interscholastic Equestrian Association, and schooling venues both English and Western. Dana grew up riding Hunt Seat Equitation at Shallowbrook Farm in Bridge-water Connecticut and has continued for 30+ years. In addition to the Hunter/ Jumper discipline she is an experienced Dressage rider as well. As a youth she was a member of Pony Club and 4-H and appreciates the education the clubs offer today's youth. Dana resides in Wellington Florida with her two sons Anderson and Preston and her beautiful Hanovarian named Cartier.

John Tabb

*Tennessee
Western Division*

John Tabb has been a part of the horse industry for more than 40 years as a farrier and Judge. John has been a steward at the Pinto World Show, Paint World, and the Appaloosa Nationals and Appaloosa World show. John holds a judges card from AQHA, APHA, ApHC, POAC, and ARHC.

Jennifer Moshier

*Ohio/Florida
Walking/Working Mountain
Division*

Jennifer is pleased to return to judge the WRM division in 2013. A career judge of more than 20 years with over 500 shows judged under her belt, she brings a wealth of experience and variety of knowledge to the Kentucky 4H program. A carded judge with NWAH as well as 6 other breeds and as an approved 4H judge in 12 states, Jennifer finds the greatest reward in working with youth and 4H programs throughout the US. Judging at the State 4H level, Jennifer has marked the cards at State 4H Shows in KY, OH, VA, MD, NY, VT, SC and New England as well as the Southern Regional 4H Championships. Her roster each year averages 60 shows all 12 months of the year throughout the US and Internationally. As a 4H supporter, Jennifer sits on the State 4H Judges Committee in Ohio and has served as an advisor for this division as well as the Hunter division here in KY. In the show ring she is known for educational style, using the mic as well as score sheets and "one on one" critique, to improve performance, explain placing and encourage youth riders. As a clinician, Jennifer has been nationally recognized as a speaker for Equine Affaire and Horse World Expo, as well as a judge for the Versatile Horse and Rider competition at both events. In the training and instruction role, Jennifer's clients have amassed titles at the State, National and World level in several breeds and disciplines and range from young 4H members to successful adult amateurs. Staying within the equine field in her personal life, Jennifer is married to Dean Moshier, certified journeyman farrier, internationally recognized clinician and president of The Balanced Hoof and Horse Inc. Together they have officiated the Horse Judging Contest at the Eastern National as well State Judging Contests in KY and NY.

Debbie Dunphy

*Michigan
Drill Team*

Debbie was introduced to equestrian drill in 2000 while living in Olympia, Washington. There she rode with two drill teams, and soon after moving back to M became a judge. In 2004 she founded and was Captain and Drill Master of the Ohio-based Cowgirl Express Rodeo Drill Team who won the 2006 USEDC National Drill Team Championship. She has performed and competed throughout the United States and in Canada as a member/captain of several drill teams. Debbie and her Arabian, Sur Golden Pride, were featured in the Arabian Horse Magazine for their equestrian drill team accomplishments. Debbie also has two Quarter Horses, Electra Illusion and Bars Ebony Sugar Mac that she rides in drill as well. She has judged numerous competitions throughout the United States including the Reno Rodeo, the Grand National Rodeo in San Francisco, the Western States Equestrian Drill Team Association Championship, the Pacific Northwest Drill Team Association Championship, the Washington Ladies Riding Club Association Championship, the Bluegrass Ride at the Kentucky Horse Park, the Northern Kentucky Horse Network Drill Competition, the Florida State Fair Drill Team Competition, the USEDC Super Ride National Championship as well as other drill team competitions. In addition to judging drill team competitions, Debbie has judged open horse shows and also conducts equestrian drill team clinics and drill team judging clinics throughout the United States.

Cary Chasteen

*Georgia
Drill Team*

Cary has been a drill team coach for 6 years. As a coach his team won the USEDA National Title in 2010, and was the Reserve Champion in 2009. In 2011 and 2012 his team won the Region 7 Championships and was State Champions in 2011. Cary is a certified Drill Master and a Certified USEDA Judge. Cary has Judged Drill Team competition all across the country including, USEDA competition in Texas, a WLRCA event in Tacoma Washington, and the Reno Rodeo Western States Championships.

Did you know?...

95% of all the corn farms in Kentucky and America are family owned.

And by staying on the cutting edge of technology, our farmers are reducing soil erosion by 44% and growing 70% more corn per pound of fertilizer. Their commitment to increasing production while reducing the impact on the environment ensures a successful and sustainable future for our next generation of farmers.

Learn more about our corn farmers at
