

Kentucky 4H State Horse Show

2016

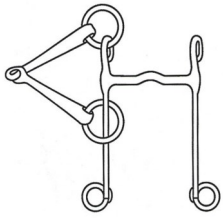

UK COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE University of Kentucky – College of Agriculture DEDICATION

Darlene Hasty and Linda Greenwell from Jefferson county have been kindly volunteering at the state show for the last 25 years. They work tirelessly at the registration office for the duration of the show. Their altruistic spirits and gregarious personalities welcome the show families as they first arrive on the fairgrounds. Linda and Darlene were part of the oldest 4-H horse club in Jefferson County. They began working with Pee Wee 4-Her's and moved to drill team, club functions and then district committees and of course the state show.

They always planned their vacation around the State Horse Show. They come every day, hand out packets, help people register and find their stalls, show them where to park and drop their trailers, and sell the state t-shirts which raise money for the scholarships that are distributed to the youth every year. Before the show even starts, these ladies show up and help stuff packets and organize the registration office. They feel their 4-H friends are family who are dearly valued! Because they have been doing this job for so long, the show management doesn't need to be worried to train someone new every year! This saves them a lot of time! In the name of the Kentucky 4-H Horse Program, we wish them a happy 25-year anniversary, and another 25 years to come!

Please join the Kentucky 4-H Horse Program in honoring Linda and Darlene for their contributions to the youth of Kentucky at the Dedication Ceremony, Friday, July 8th at approximately 6 pm..

Jennifer Sullivan*Miniature
Saddleseat*

In 2010, Jennifer decided to pursue another avenue in the equine industry; becoming a licensed judge for the New England Horsemen's Council. In 2010 she officially she gained her cards in the NEHC English and Western Divisions and began judging locally in New England. Having discovered a new passion for being in the center of the ring, Jennifer decided to go through the process of being a United States Equestrian Federation licensed judge. Jennifer is judging an average of 15-20 shows each season, from local one day shows, to larger breed and USEF shows. She has developed a reputation in being fair to the exhibitors and extremely time efficient so that shows run in a smooth, timely manner. Jennifer is comfortable and confident in judging multiple breeds and disciplines, making her well rounded and unique.

Jennifer Moshier*Walking/Racking/Mountain
Contest
Western Judged*

Jennifer is thrilled to return to Louisville to officiate the State 4H Show again in 2016. A career judge of 26 years, Jennifer is a carded judge with multiple national breed organizations and is an approved senior or "A" 4H judge in 10 states. With her beginnings in the equine industry in 4H in New York in the 70s, Jennifer is passionate in judging 4H shows and educating youth through her work in the ring as a judge and as a nationally recognized clinician. As a breed circuit judge, her career has been highlighted as a World or Congress Judge for ABRA, POAC, Haflinger and the Gypsy Vanner Horse Society. In the area of 4H shows, she has been honored to officiate multiple divisions at State 4H Shows in Ohio, New York, Vermont, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, South Carolina and New England. In addition, Jennifer signed the cards for the Western division at the 2007 Southern Regional 4H Championships in Memphis, TN. As a clinician, she has been a presenter on a variety of show topics, training and classes for Equine Affaire, Horse World Expo, Hoosier Horse Fair and The Midwest Horse Fair. Beyond judging and clinic work, Jennifer sits on the State 4H Horse Judges Committee in Ohio and has been a rule book advisor for the Kentucky State 4H program as well. As an instructor, her clients have had proven success at all levels and in a variety of classes, from local and 4H events to the Southern Regional 4H Championships and World level competition.

Ronald Bartholomew*Hunter*

Ronald grew up riding and showing on the Hunter/Jumper and Arabian show circuits both local and "A" rated shows. His parents have been breeding, training and showing Percheron draft horses for twenty plus years. Growing up, Ronald's parents always promoted his riding and involvement with horses, as they were actively involved with horses themselves. Here he had the ability to ride Hunter, Western, English and Driving classes as a junior exhibitor. After obtaining his Bachelors of Business Management, he went on to train and work as an assistant trainer and then started his own teaching/training business "RGB Training & Sales". Here he has developed a large junior rider and amateur based program that competes locally, regionally and nationally. While training and showing clients horses, Ronald also thought it would be beneficial to start working on his judging licenses. Ronald holds eight USEF licenses along with six other breed licenses. Ronald has a strong ethical code and believes things should be done correctly and by the specs written for each class/division. Good luck to all exhibitors!
