

Kentucky 4-H State Horse Show 2018

UK COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE
University of Kentucky – College of Agriculture

DEDICATION

Kathie Robertson

Kathie Robertson has been a volunteer for the Kentucky State 4H Horse Program since 2004, having served on the District 4 and State Horse Management teams all 14 of those years. She has served as President of the State Horse Advisory Council twice, State Advisory Council Secretary, District President, Vice President, and Secretary numerous times. She has served on the Hunter division rulebook revision team several times, and been the main Hunter division coordinator at the State Horse Show for the past 10 years.

Having been a member of 4H in California as a child, she participated in Beef, Sheep, Goat, Swine, Horse, Leather Products, and Sewing. Following in their mom's footsteps, Kathie's two children (William and Katie) were also active in 4-H as youth and have gone on to become volunteers and leaders at the County, District, and State levels, as well.

Kathie is known as a person who instills leadership, encourages and supports members to try new things, is an advocate of always giving back to organizations, offers a huge amount of education, and insists the members compete for the sheer fun of competing.

According to 4-H'er, Lillie Moody and her mom Chrissy, "Kathie is very dedicated to the club, and the kids. She is kind and helpful with everything the kids are involved in." Adult volunteer, Jennifer McMannus adds, "Kathie has been so supportive of my child and all of the kids, and has taught them so much. We are lucky to have her as one of our leaders."

"Kathie is a person we can always count on to help. Whether it be filling in at various jobs during the show, or answering hunter and dressage questions throughout the year, Kathie's support of the Horse Program is invaluable," said Equine Specialist, Dr. Fernanda Camargo.

If you are a State 4-H Horse Show veteran, you probably recognize Kathie, or at least her voice. She has filled in as the announcer, in the crow's nest, and anywhere else she is needed for the last several years. Kathie is one of the few volunteers, that because of her horse knowledge, demeanor, and willingness to work, serves the entire week at the State Horse Show.

"To make the best better." While this is the motto of 4H, Kathie believes in this motto and uses it to guide her fellow leaders and to pass down to the youth membership of 4H a knowledge and a passion for the horse. She believes that all of the youth at large must be thought of, not just a small demographic of them. She believes the youth should expand out of their comfort areas and try new projects, educational opportunities, competitions, and experiences. Not only do these experiences make you better in what you do every day, but these experiences could help you find out a new or additional passions.

Please join the Kentucky 4-H Horse Program in honoring Kathie Robertson for her contributions to the youth of Kentucky at the Dedication Ceremony, Saturday, June 30th at approximately 6 pm..
