

Arabian

Type: Light Breed, Pleasure or Saddle type

Origin: Middle East

Uses: Trail riding, endurance, English and Western pleasure show, cutting and reining, jumping and dressage, etc.

Important Traits: High intelligence and trainability, spirited disposition, and stamina. One of the oldest recognized breeds of horses.

Size: 14 to 15.3 Hands

Description: Distinctive 'dished' face, large eyes, a wide forehead, and a small muzzle. Arabian horses have a short back, long and pronounced withers, a high flat croup and a high set tail.

Color Pattern: Bay, gray, black, chestnut, and roan. Arabian's have black skin. White markings can be on face and lower legs.

